

ANAYA

RIGHTS CATALOGUE

INDEX

HIGHLIGHTS	4
AGE 3 +	32
AGE 6 +	52
AGE 12 +	64

Happy Ferocious

Hematocrítico, El · Illustrations: Vázquez, Alberto

New edition featuring an introduction by the author and new, original recipes

CUATROGATOS FOUNDATION PRIZE, 2015
WHITE RAVENS, 2015

The Big Bad Wolf's sister is very concerned about her little son. Instead of being big bad and fierce, he's actually very good and kind. Ferocious, the Big Bad Wolf, tells her not to worry and suggests that his nephew should spend some time with him so that he can be taught how to be a real Big Bad Wolf. So Little Wolf goes to stay at his uncle's, and tries to do everything that is asked of him: to howl fiercely, to hunt rabbits, to frighten Little Red Riding Hood, and to gobble up her grandma. Yet somehow, he always manages to make a mess of things. He shares a picnic salad with some rabbits, he makes friends with little Red Riding Hood, and has a nice cup of tea and a chat with her grandma. But the very last straw comes when he decides to bake a lovely carrot cake.

978-84-698-4709-1 | 13,50 € | HB | 170 mm x 255 mm | 80 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, TURKISH, CATALANIAN, POLISH OPTIONED

Fairy-Tale Forest

A magical place where classic fairy-tale characters go on fun new adventures.

MORE THAN 75,000 COPIES SOLD

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, ITALIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, ITALIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, ITALIAN AND GALICIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, CATALONIAN

(Not) Every Little Girl Likes the Colour Pink

Pintor, David

Drawing upon a highly amusing dialogue with his daughter, David Pintor recounts some of the many weird and wonderful interests that can fuel little girls' dreams

Anyone who has ever had a daughter knows that, sooner or later, you will get asked questions like, "Daddy, is pink for girls?" I was the one who had to come up with an answer, and it wasn't at all easy, considering that whenever we went into a toy shop, it was very clear which aisle corresponded to the "girls' section": the pink one! This book came about precisely because of this kind of question. In it, I wanted to talk about gender stereotypes by using the best tool that I could think of: humour.

978-84-698-9105-6 | 14,90 € | HB | 205 mm x 265 mm | 32 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: PORTUGUESE

Green Dog 3. My family and Other Animals

Díaz, Alberto · Illustrations: Núñez, Álvaro

Third Title from the hilarious series Green Dog.

A green dog who thinks like a child, and a boy whose new dog status will put him through situations and hardships that will compromise his mental health, his identity, his image, and worse: his social status

Lolo and Colás are no longer so green when it comes to being green. In fact, you could say that they're actually growing to like it. But being different has never come easy, and they will need the help of their friends to overcome the obstacles that life can throw in the path of any green dog.

978-84-143-3624-6 | 12,95 € | PB | 210 mm x 270 mm | 154 pp.

Escape Book

Sierra i Fabra, Jordi

Only the best readers will be able to escape...

Elisabet goes to the fair with her best friend, Alicia, Bruno and Ivan. There, they enter an attraction called Escape Book which, as its name suggests, is a literary-themed escape room. At first, it doesn't seem like anything special: riddles about One Thousand and One Nights, Robinson Crusoe, Peter Pan... the usual stuff. But the setting is amazing! Maybe too much...

When the walls start appearing and disappearing, Elisabet and her friends realize that the consequences of not finishing the challenge in time could be much more dangerous than you would expect from a fairground attraction.

978-84-143-3567-3 | 12,95 € | PB | 145 mm x 210 mm | 120 pp

THIS IS THE LATEST FROM PROLIFIC AUTHOR JORDI SIERRA I FABRA. OTHER TITLES BY THIS AUTHOR INCLUDE:

Escape Artists 4. The Tower of Secrets

Cerdá, Ximo · Illustrations: Ibañez, Kike

An ESCAPE BOOK in which you will have to solve a series of riddles before you can carry on reading the story. But be prepared! All your skills and prowess will be put to the test. Unravel mysterious puzzles and riddles in this exciting adventure.

In the first title of this series, we witnessed the founding of the Escapists Club, when Emma, Vic, Luna, Rober and Pistachos got together to unravel an intriguing riddle, which in turn led them to uncover a mysterious conspiracy. Now we are about to see how they will tackle their first real challenge as they attempt to trace the whereabouts of Enzo Della Rovere and his Occults in the depths of a dark tower, where danger and mystery lurk around every corner.

978-84-143-3527-7 | 13,50 € | PB | 150 mm x 210 mm | 232 pp

A Billion Pipelines

Arboleda, Diego · Illustrations: Sagospe, Raúl

An exciting adventure filled with choices to be taken, expeditions, conspiracies, and loads, hundreds, thousands, even millions of pipelines

M lives in a country which is nothing at all like yours. He lives in a kingdom of metal, criss-crossed by a billion pipelines, in a little metallic house with shiny grey grass growing in the backyard. And in that same country, with the same house and same backyard, a meteorite is going to fall. So, if you should happen to see a meteorite hurtling towards you, do just what M did: firstly, and most importantly, get out of its way. Then watch over it and don't let anyone take it ..

9978-84-143-3525-3 | 14,90 € | PB | 140 mm x 210 mm | 216 pp

A Billion Pipelines 2. Spiralling Adventures

Arboleda, Diego · Illustrations: Sagospe, Raúl

Newly edited second episode in the series A Billion Pipelines

It's been 2 months since a meteorite fell into M's backyard. And great changes have taken place in the Kingdom of Pipelines: a strange new colour, the colour green, perplexes and worries its inhabitants. But perhaps they would be better off worrying about the scientists' latest mysterious invention. M is determined to protect his little green courtyard. Little does he imagine that his mission will soon be to protect and save the whole kingdom.

9978-84-1143-3526-0 | 14,90 € | PB | 140 mm x 210 mm | 208 pp

Lovecraft Society

Núñez, Álvaro

A story about the power of friendship, the importance of memory and the value of family; with the thrill of a good mystery fiction novel.

March 2020: Surely I don't need to remind you what's going on, diary. I thought that moving to the country with my grandfather would be a new beginning, that I would make new friends... But it turns out that Laura is ghosting me and grandpa does nothing but break lockdown to go and see Luis. At least I have the books I took out of the library, from a writer who has the same initials as me: H. P. Lovecraft. They're pretty good. I think I'm going to write some story inspired by his. Today I found on Instagram a very strange account, a kind of fan club, although at the moment hardly anyone is following it....

978-84-143-3466-9 | 12,95 € | HB | 140 mm x 210 mm | 200 pp

Words from Caramelo

Moure, Gonzalo: · Illustrations: Girón, María

Special edition in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of Palabras de Caramelo
MORE THAN 100,000 COPIES SOLD

CCEI's HONOR LIST, 2003
"HIGHLY RECOMMENDED BOOKS LIST", FUNDALECTURA

Kori is a deaf boy, who lives in a Saharawi refugee camp. He loves camels and going to school to learn how to read and write. The day his teacher understands she can truly teach him how to write, something very special happens in his life: he is able to put down on paper his emotions, especially those arising from his relationship with his friend Caramelo, a little cinnamon-colored camel.

978-84-698-9103-2 | 15,95 € | HB | 205 mm x 285 mm | 80 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: CATALONIAN, PORTUGUESE, KOREAN, ITALIAN, CHINESE, TURKISH

Learning Can Lead to Happiness

Serrano, Lucía

Discover the importance of learning and growing up to be happy.

Did you know that education is a fundamental human right? And that having a job you like is also very important? There are many boys and girls in the world who can't go to school but have to work instead, and there are many people who have jobs that no one else would want to do. What can we do to make sure everyone can get a good education and a decent job? The focus of this book is on the following sustainable development goals: Goal No. 4. Quality education. To ensure inclusive, equitable and quality education, and to promote lifelong learning opportunities for all. Goal No. 8. Decent work and economic growth. To promote inclusive and sustainable economic growth, employment, and decent jobs for all.

978-84-698-8863-6 | 10,95 € | HB | 217 mm x 218 mm | 32 pp

Mission Planet

A series featuring the United Nations' 2030 Sustainable Development Goals

Goal 3. Health and welfare.
Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages.

Goal 4. Quality education.
Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all

Goal 14. Conserve and sustainably use the oceans, seas and marine resources for sustainable development

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, CATALONIAN

Goal 2. End world hunger. End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture.

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, CATALONIAN

Goal 7. Affordable and sustainable energy. Ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable and modern energy for all.

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, CATALONIAN

Goal 12. Responsible production and consumption. Ensure sustainable consumption and production patterns.

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, CATALONIAN

Mythologies Around the World

Alonso, Ana · Illustrations: Sánchez, Sr.

A child's introduction to mythology and the gods of diverse cultures.

A magical woman who turns into a tree, books that foretell the future, gods and goddesses who behave like humans, unforgettable heroes and heroines. In this book you will find all these and many other tales from the most important mythologies around the world.

978-84-698-9087-5 | 10,95 € | PB | 205 mm x 260 mm | 64 pp

My First Book

Anaya presents this series to commemorate renowned characters portrayed in literature, art and history, and introduce their work and achievements to young readers. These books have been written and adapted by leading authors to make them more easily understandable.

Lemon-Balm Tea

Iruela Domenech, Andrea · Illustrations: Guirao, David

40th Vila d'Ibi Prize for Children's Literature, 2022

Lemon-Balm Tea, begins by introducing us to the orphan 9457 and her newly adoptive parents, the wealthy Mr and Mrs Gómez, who do not hesitate to abandon her at the door of an unknown house, next to a Melissa plant, after realising that she only has eight fingers. The owner of the house, Mr. Capibara, is a cunning and generous rodent who can speak four languages and recite the alphabet backwards, and he will gladly welcome her into his home of changing rooms. Mr. Capibara, the mischievous little Martinic goblins, Jacinto - a linguistic goose who doesn't like children - and the fairy Isidora will have to face Mr. Pruñonosa, the cantankerous neighbour who owns Martillazos S.A., "very proud of being a practical and unsympathetic man".

978-84-143-3458-4 | 12,50 € | HB | 135 mm x 205 mm | 144 pp

Vila d'Ibi Prize for Children's Literature

The Vila d'Ibi Prize for Children's Literature, sponsored by the Ibi Town Council in collaboration with the Anaya Group, is awarded to original, unpublished books for children.

OEPLI HONOR LIST 2022

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN RIGHTS

Prodigious, the Disgusting

Cortés Amunarriz, Juana · Illustrations: Naranjo, Nico

13th City of Malaga Prize for Children's Literature

The winning book, Prodigious the Disgusting, tells the story of a monster who is different from all the rest, as he suffers from a chronic intolerance to monstrous food that gives him really bad breath. Everyone goes out of their way to avoid him, so poor Prodigious decides to stop eating so that he won't be shunned by others. But one day, driven out of his mind by hunger, he comes across a book that has been left in the woods. After swallowing it down in one gulp, he realises that this food hasn't upset his stomach. So, he sets out to find some more, even if it means stealing the books from the houses in the village. The village children, who can't go to sleep without their bedtime story, get together to try to discover who the culprit is.

978-84-698-9089-9 | 12,95 € | HB | 150 mm x 210 mm | 112 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

City of Malaga Prize

The Education Board of the Malaga City Council and the publishing house Anaya award the City of Malaga Prize for Children's Literature to encourage children to start reading from an early age and to give children's authors an opportunity for their work to reach a wider audience.

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: GALICIAN & KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: BASQUE & KOREAN

Detective Owl 1: The Beginning

Lechuza, Equipo

A new superheroine? Not just that, but a detective as well. Her name is Carla Ventura, and she describes herself as “the best detective in the whole wide world”. Carla loves investigating, solving mysteries, and reading comics.

Carla’s father is worried about his daughter’s overactive imagination and her eagerness to search for mysteries here, there, and everywhere. But her grandfather Carlos, who was once an explorer and adventurer, has a better understanding of his granddaughter, and gives her a very special owl costume which lends her certain powers, including the ability to see at night, to make short flights and to be resistant to knocks and bumps.

978-84-678-6118-1 | 12,50 € | HB | 150 mm x 215 mm | 144 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: FRENCH AND CATALANIAN

Detective Owl

The Detective Owl books are very rich in text typology. Within their pages, we can find narrative text, a large amount of dialogue, and as is to be expected, given that the main character is a big fan of comics, a great deal of comic art. Comics are used as a narrative language combining literary and graphic aspects and are also a fascinating aesthetic reference for children with their fantasy, colour, great adventures and intense feelings.

OVER 100,000 COPIES SOLD

Conspiracy in the Shadows

Hematocrítico, El · Illustrations: Monteys, Albert

The greatest conspiracy of all time is taking place right in the middle of the school playground.

Marisa is sick and tired of those horrid little toys, the Chinki Plonkis/the latest craze taking every school playground in the world by storm. Of course, as she doesn't own one herself, none of her schoolmates want to play with her. But during yet another boring breaktime, our little heroine stumbles upon a secret society: a society, hiding away in the shadows, which is pulling all the strings in order to squeeze as much money as possible out of every single child worldwide. An alarming revelation that will set in motion another of the fabulous Legends of the (School) Playground

978-84-698-9070-7 | 13,95 € | HB | 180 mm x 215 mm | 64 pp

The Wonderful World of Opera

Alcolea, Ana · Illustrations: Pérez, Óscar T.

You are invited to delve deep into the wonderful world of opera.

Do you like opera? No? Not so much? You don't know? Do you shrug when you are asked this question? Do you love it? Is it a passion of yours? We will introduce you to the world of opera with 30 fundamental pieces. You will learn about their plots, which are not as far removed from everyday life as you may think. Operas blend stories with music. They are stories packed with emotion, adventures, and passion between people who are just like you and me. They experience the same emotions as us. Feelings which include love, pain, sadness, and joy. Stories that are created and expressed by wonderful music that you can now enjoy by scanning the QR codes provided. And if you want to learn more, you will find further information on topics such as composers, operas and an explanation of musical terms.

978-84-698-4734-3 | 20,95 € | HB | 210 mm x 270 mm | 88 pp

Forbidden to Read Lewis Carroll

Arboleda, Diego · Illustrations: Sagospe, Raúl

A book that brings readers closer to the world of Lewis Carroll and to Alice in Wonderland.

NATIONAL AWARD FOR CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT'S LITERATURE, 2014 / LAZARILLO PRIZE, 2012 / CUATROGATOS FOUNDATION PRIZE, 2014 / WHITE RAVENS SELECTION, 2014 / CLIJ HONOR LIST, 2014.

This is the story of Eugéne Chignon, a young French governess who travels to New York in 1932 to care for Alice, a little girl whose unbridled passion for the world created by Lewis Carroll has forced her parents to ban his books in the house. Eugéne's first task is to prevent Alice from discovering that Alice Liddell, the real Alice and Carroll's inspiration, who is now in her eighties, is visiting the city to receive a tribute. Eugéne Chignon will learn that strange coincidences, outlandish characters, and absurd situations are not only the legacy of Wonderland, but are often to be found in our real world, especially within the walls of this house.

978-84-678-6410-6 | 14,50 € | PB | 140 mm x 210 mm | 208 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: MACEDONIAN, ESTONIAN, ITALIAN, CHINESE, KOREAN, PORTUGUESE

Diego Arboleda & Raúl Sagospe

These books are overflowing with imagination, delightful humour and the most surprising historical facts you will ever read.

DIEGO ARBOLEDA'S BOOKS HAVE SOLD OVER 100,000 COPIES IN SPANISH

CUATROGATOS FOUNDATION AWARD 2019
OEPLI HONOUR LIST 2017
RIGHTS SOLD: ESTONIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: ESTONIAN

The Greatest Cases of Sherlock Holmes

Doyle, Arthur Conan · Illustrations: Ortu, Davide

A book featuring six of the detective's most legendary cases.

Sherlock Holmes enthralls us with his greatest adventures. Arthur Conan Doyle introduces us to Sherlock Holmes in A Study in Scarlet, and this selection of 6 works will take us on a journey of his thirty years of service upholding law and order as a consulting detective to a police force that he eclipses in talent and sagacity. No crime will remain unsolved if he investigates and unravels its mysteries. We also meet the characters who will mark his life: his inseparable friend Dr Watson, his brother Mycroft, his idealised love Irene Adler, and his bitter enemy Professor Moriarty, with whom he will engage in a fight to the death on the brink of an imposing Swiss waterfall. Will he come out of it alive? We urge you to open up this book which is certain to hold you in its grip until the very last page.

978-84-698-8559-8 | 12,50 € | PB | 170 mm x 240 mm | 176 pp

Classics Made-to-Measure

This series aims to keep the great literary classics alive and thriving in the classroom, where they can be enjoyed and appreciated. Specially adapted by teachers who live literature in the classroom, they are narrated with a language that is accessible to students while conserving the stylistic richness of each individual work and author. Large, full-colour illustrations at an affordable price which feature an introduction to give readers a context, and a guide to the language, style and type of adaptation. The works in this series also include an appendix featuring the biography of the author and their work, information on the text, comments on other editions, and its validity in the literary panorama.

Revenge of the Spanish Teacher

Sierra i Fabra, Jordi · Illustrations: Núñez, Pablo

An original way to turn language and literature into challenging, fun-packed activities.

Gertru, known to her students as “the Sergeant” is a stern and too much of a strict type Spanish language teacher, who is not at all happy with the progress her third- eighth-grade pupils are making. When her fellow teachers place bets on whose class will have the best pass rate, Gertru realises that she will have to get down to some serious work if she doesn’t want to lag behind. But there are three students who still seem to struggle despite all her efforts. So, she comes up with the idea of setting a series of unique challenges that they will have to overcome in order to pass her exam.

978-84-698-8572-7 | 9,95 € | PB | 125 mm x 190 mm | 168 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, TURKISH / IE THE MURDER OF THE MATH TEACHER: CHINESE AND TURKISH

Jordi Sierra i Fabra's Teacher Series

This series of books featuring schoolteachers of varying subjects has already sold over 700,000 copies. The reason behind its success could be said to lie in its special approach to those matters that directly concern children and youngsters, as well as its fun and entertaining portrayal of the complicated relationship between pupils and their school subjects. Readers will discover that many of the problems that arise in everyday life bear a direct relation to the knowledge that teachers impart in the classroom. Therefore, if students wish to gain the full benefit of the learning process, it is in their best interest to join forces with their teachers.

OVER 700,000 COPIES SOLD

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, CHINESE, POLISH, TURKISH AND CATALANIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE AND CATALANIAN

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE, POLISH, TURKISH

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE AND CATALANIAN

Fairy-Tale Numbers

Zurita, Ana

A series to learn basic concepts with the help of well-known fairy-tale characters.

A series to learn basic concepts with the help of well-known fairy-tale characters. How many playful little pigs are there? And unruly little dwarfs? Discover numbers with well-loved fairy-tale characters.

978-84-698-6587-3 | 10,50 € | HB | 185 mm x 190 mm | 24 pp

Enchanted Shapes

Monreal, Violeta

Enchanted Shapes encourages creativity in children through the use of simple geometric shapes.

Enchanted Shapes aims to encourage creativity in children through the use of simple geometric shapes. Blue is a blue circle, but he wants to be more. Nico will help him collect the circles that he needs to become Zombie Blue. But first he will have to travel through the lands of geometric shapes.

Franki is a simple square who dreams of becoming a robot. To make his wish come true, he counts on the help of Luci, who will accompany him on an extraordinary journey in search of the missing pieces.

Baby will need some more pieces if she wants to be a draculina. Victor will help her to hunt for the missing rectangles on an adventure where they will learn all about geometric shapes.

Triangle Rex wants to be a dinosaur, but he is missing some pieces. Nina will help him collect the shapes he needs to be Dino Rex.

978-84-698-8554-3 | 12,50 € | HB | 170 mm x 170 mm | 88 pp

Three Little Monsters in School

Oro, Begoña · Illustrations: Garay, Ester

Three monstrous stories in verse handling the first days of school with a great deal of fun and laughter.

Following on from The Three Little Monsters In The Bathroom, the second story in the series, jam-packed with little monsters. Our three little monsters, Skeleton, Ghost, and Zombie, have just started school. But little Skeleton can't stay still for one minute, little Ghost feels as if she were invisible, and little Zombie keeps falling asleep in class. Luckily, with the help of their teacher and classmates, they will soon discover how much fun learning can be.

978-84-698-9095-5 | 14,90 € | HB | 185 mm x 185 mm | 72 pp

First in the series:
*Three Little Monsters
in the Bathroom*

Thump Thump

Sordo, Paco

A story to learn how friendship can break down barriers

Pong is a happy robot. He lives in the countryside, and Camila, his very best friend, is always close by. There is only one thing he doesn't like: he has no heart, so his chest doesn't go "thump, thump".

978-84-698-8608-3 | 12,50 € | HB | 245 mm x 245 mm | 32 pp

Some Advice for the Ogre

Antón, Rocío;Núñez, Lola · Illustrations: García, Chema

A way to cultivate positive attitudes and habits with the aim of learning about the importance of maintaining good personal hygiene in order to prevent the spread of viruses.

Tom Thumb and his brothers and sisters are out for a walk, when they suddenly come across a castle which they decide to explore. But this castle belongs to a terrible ogre. He is sick and feverish, and can't stop coughing and sneezing, but he can still summon up the energy to try to eat them up. But the clever brothers and sisters give him some very good advice on personal hygiene before they go anywhere near him. Will the ogre succeed in gobbling them all up?

978-84-698-8611-3 | 10,50 € | HB | 215 mm x 220 mm | 32 pp

Andonce again upon a time

Classic fairy-tale adaptations with a humorous touch. A lively new take on the age-old traditional stories. Rhyming cumulative texts lend predictability to the tale, prompting young children to anticipate what's coming next, and encouraging them to begin to read independently. A way to cultivate positive attitudes and habits with the aim of recognising emotions and learning how to handle them. An activity file is included at the end of each book to explore and work on multiple intelligences.

Finding one's place in the world

Learning to share

Learning about traffic signs

Learning to live together peacefully

Eating a healthy and balanced diet.

Big Little Stories

Serrano, Lucía

Stories of everyday life featuring daily activities such as mealtimes, bath time, bedtime or the school run. And emotions such as fear, anger, security and happiness.

A compilation of four stories: Bath Time for Carlota, Good Night, Monsters! Sit Properly at the Table and The Luckiest One of All.

When bath time comes, Carlota doesn't want anything to do with it.

When bedtime comes, all the monsters want to get into Joaquin's bed.

When it is time to sit down at the table, the food won't stay still, and Paula can't eat.

And when it's time to go to school, someone is the luckiest one of all.

978-84-698-8601-4 | 12,50 € | HB | 170 mm x 200 mm | 80 pp

Wash Your Hands, Carla

Lechuza, Equipo

Carla, the leading character in the Detective Owl series, teaches the very young some simple everyday actions that will help to prevent all kinds of illnesses. The text is repeated in two fonts (both block capitals and cursive) for those children who are just starting to read.

Garra Poderosa has a terrible cough, so Carla has to look after him. Even the toughest of the tough get sick from time to time! A fun childhood story about the future Detective Owl when she was just Carla, an ordinary little girl. The text is presented in two fonts (block capitals and cursive) to facilitate comprehension for new readers.

978-84-698-7617-6 | 7,95 € | PB | 225 mm x 340 mm | 32 pp

Fun Facts in verse: Chess

Pinto, Sagrario;Fuentes, María Isabel · Illustrations: Serrano, Lucía

Simple, witty verses to learn fun facts about this fascinating game.

What is the object of the game? What do you have to do to win? Which pieces open the game? Can the game end in a draw? How does the knight move? Who does the bishop protect? What happens to the pawns when they reach the opposite end of the chessboard? If you want to know the answers, just open up the book and "Game on!"

978-84-698-9122-3 | 10,50 € | HB | 215 mm x 215 mm | 32 pp

Fun Facts in verse

Simple, witty verses which reveal curious facts about topics such as space, animals, plants and the human body. We dare you to find out more by reading these hilarious rhymes.

Animals

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, RUSSIAN

The Human Body

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, RUSSIAN

Plants

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, RUSSIAN

The Universe

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, RUSSIAN

Dinosaurs

Sports

Your Health

My First 100 English Words

Díaz, Alberto

A fun way for you to learn your first 100 words in English.

This picture book features twelve double-page spreads illustrating everyday scenes. In each of these scenes, you will find a selection of pictures depicting basic words which are labelled in English. The range of topics includes food, professions, animals, furniture, and clothes. As well as introducing young children to vocabulary in a foreign language, this book will help to develop their attention span and observational skills.

978-84-698-3624-8 | 15,50 € | HB | 235 mm x 315 mm | 26 pp

Free-range Children

Díaz, Alberto

A reflection on childhood and the need to take the time to enjoy it to the full.

OEPLI HONOR LIST 2022

There are hens that live so cramped up together that they can't even stretch their legs, while others, free-range hens, have plenty of room to run around and are very happy. People are a bit like them, except when they are small, because all children are free-range children, even when they live in the city.

978-84-698-9108-7 | 9,50 € | HB | 205 mm x 205 mm | 32 pp

The Biblionauts and World Book Day

Alonso, Ana · Illustrations: G. Serrano, Patricia

Learn a lot of things about Book Day and get to know the characters of Don Quixote. With texts that combine both upper and lowercase letters to help children advance their reading skills.

The Biblionauts are very excited about the Book Day, but when they go to the book fair, they find it empty. To encourage people to go they come up with the idea of recording dances with the characters from Don Quixote. Although they are a hit on the social networks, they now face another challenge: to get people to put down their mobile phones and start reading.

978-84-143-3536-9 | 9,50 € | PB | 140 mm x 200 mm | 64 pp

The Biblionauts

The text is presented in upper and lowercase letters, so that they can be used in the classroom irrespective of which method of reading and writing is being implemented. Thanks to its fun and easy-to-understand stories, children will enjoy a sense of achievement for “reading a whole book”.

Pollution

Viruses

Greek Gods

The Middle Ages

Plants

Women's Day

Prehistory

Egypt

Space

My First Don Quixote

García Domínguez, Ramón · Illustrations: Urberuaga, Emilio

An Introduction to Cervantes' masterpiece

Don Quixote is one of the most significant books in history. It was written by Miguel de Cervantes more than four centuries ago and is still read all over the world. In this book, Ramón García Domínguez tells us about the most legendary adventures of Don Quixote, the knight errant who travelled the lands of La Mancha on his horse, Rocinante, in the company of his squire Sancho Panza. Are you brave enough to join them on this journey? But watch out: windmills can sometimes turn into terrible giants.

978-84-678-7350-4 | 8,50 € | HB | 205 mm x 265 mm | 32 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: TURKISH

My First Book

Anaya introduces young readers to some of the most renowned personalities in literature, art and history.

RIGHTS SOLD: TURKISH

Scatter Brain

Serrano, Pepe · Illustrations: Ortiz, Álvaro

A moving story about Alzheimer's disease which blends reality with fantasy.

My grandfather is such a scatter brain. He can't remember grandma's name or which flat I live in, or even when my birthday is. But I'll never let him forget how very much I love him.

978-84-698-8583-3 | 9,50 € | HB | 200 mm x 200 mm | 32 pp

Crazy About Sports

Antoja, Joan; Matas, Anna M. · Illustrations: Baquero, Anna

What is your favourite sport?
Discover a lot of different sporting activities and find out which one will suit you best.

Have fun learning all about basketball and discover the most essential core life skills that this activity can teach you, such as respect, personal growth and teamwork. You'll soon be an expert!

978-84-698-8567-3 | 10,50 € | HB | 215 mm x 215 mm | 32 pp

Can I Tell You a Secret?

Aliaga, Roberto · Illustrations: Díez, Miguel Ángel

To overcome our fears: The more we find out about the things that scare us, the less frightening they will become.

Each night, at bedtime, a father tells his daughter a secret. Something that happened during his own childhood which serves as a pretext to show her that life can be interpreted in many different ways. A long time ago something unbelievable happened to me. It was the night of the full moon my ears got bigger, and my nails, my teeth, and my nose. Hair grew all over my body, and I turned into a wolf! It was then I discovered something very important that helped me overcome my fear of the dark ...

978-84-678-6150-1 | 10,50 € | HB | 215 mm x 215 mm | 32 pp

Can I tell you a secret?

The series "Can I tell you a secret?" is not only a collection of stories but also a collection of secrets. Each night a parent, either a mother or a father, tells their daughter a secret. It is always a story from the parents' own childhood, a curious anecdote that serves to create a bond between the two generations, the adult's and the child's, while also demonstrating that things are not always what they may seem at first glance. The text is presented in cursive writing.

When I Was This Small

When I Worked in the Circus

When I Went to the Far West

When I Turned Into a
Mermaid

When I Flew in a
Balloon

When I Could Put
My Foot in My Mouth

When I Went to the Jungle

Fantastical Beings

Alcolea, Ana · Illustrations: Monreal, Violeta

Would you like to know what your favourite fantastical creatures were like when they were little? What did they get up to? What games did they use to play? What things did they like?

Within these pages you'll encounter ogresses, vampires, nymphs, and dragons that are all the same age as you. The words and illustrations will take you on a magical journey to extraordinary places and times. Are you ready to venture into the powerful world of the imagination?

978-84-698-6604-7 | 20,95 € | HB | 210 mm x 265 mm | 128 pp

Carla and Lechuga

Lechuza, Equipo

What was Carla like before she became Detective Owl? And who is Lechuga, the stuffed toy that never leaves her side? These questions and many more will be answered in the new series of prequels featuring our cookie-loving superheroine as a small child.

Carla and her stuffed toy, Lechuga, are absolutely inseparable. So are Marcos and his new toy called Ingenious. Ingenious is clever and can sing and dance. But he also behaves rather strangely. What secret is Ingenious the bear hiding? Carla will have to come up with all sorts of plans in order to uncover the teddy's true intentions, although they don't necessarily turn out the way she expected. It's just as well that when things go wrong, her family will always be there to help her. Carla's adventures before she became Detective Owl.

978-84-698-3626-2 | 10,50 € | PB | 145 mm x 185 mm | 80 pp

Classic Fairy Tales To Read and Tell

Various authors · Illustrations: Various illustrators

Great illustrators bring traditional fairy-tale characters to life.

This volume features a collection of well-loved, age-old stories, written to make them more accessible to new readers.

“The world of fairy tales is made up of both joyful and sinister happenings. The light of the darkest shadows and the light of heaven; such is the light of fairy tales. Within these tales we find side by side both the delicate and the dreadful, the tender-hearted and the cantankerous, the generous and the wicked”. Gustavo Martín Garzo.

Stories included in this compilation: The Town Musicians of Bremen, Little Red Riding Hood, The Princess and the Pea, Snow White, Cinderella, Puss in Boots, The Wolf and the Seven Little Kids, The Pied Piper of Hamelin, The Little Mermaid, The Three Little Pigs.

978-84-698-3391-9 | 15,95 € | HB | 195 mm x 250 mm | 256 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE

Classic Fairy Tales To Read and Tell

Great illustrators bring traditional fairy-tale characters to life.

Lupas and Nanai. A Mystery of Earth

Arboleda, Diego · Illustrations: Zurita, Ana

Join Lupas and Nanai in these books packed with fun and amazing surprises.

Lupas the wolf has a vivid imagination and owns some strange magnifying glasses. Nanai the giraffe is both intelligent and daring. Together they will unravel this element of earth mystery, a very surprising, very sandy, and very hot mystery.

An invisible pyramid, a bewildered pharaoh, a scribe who doesn't write, a desert where it snows, papyrus, and hieroglyphs. But what element can be added to make this mystery perfect? Earth, plenty of earth.

978-84-698-7596-4 | 10,50 € | PB | 145 mm x 185 mm | 112 pp

Lupas and Nanai

Join Lupas and Nanai in these books packed with fun and amazing surprises.

Lupas the wolf has a vivid imagination and owns some strange magnifying glasses. Nanai the giraffe is both intelligent and daring.

Together they will unravel these very special mysteries of the four elements and the four cardinal directions.

Antarctica

The Vikings

Egypt

Ancient Greece

China

The Middle Ages

Creatures - The Secret Lives of Animals

Serrano, Lucía

Have you ever wondered what animals are really like?

Have you ever wondered what these well-known animals are really like? Animals are all around us; they are here, there and everywhere. They can be found in our immediate surroundings or in distant lands. Each one has its own individual characteristics, a few of which you might already know. Of course, it goes without saying that a lion is not the same as a fly. But apart from the most obvious differences, there are others that you may not be aware of. What natural abilities do they have? What are their weaknesses? Where do they live? Are they dangerous? Venture into the world of creatures and take a good look at their lives. You can't imagine how many things you'll discover.

978-84-698-5901-8 | 16,50 € | HB | 205 mm x 265 mm | 96 pp

Once (and Twice) Upon A Time

Serrano, Lucía

The things they never told you about classic fairy tales.

Have you ever wondered what fairy-tale characters are really like?

This book, a sort of encyclopaedia of fairy-tale characters, reveals secrets that have never been told before. Some of the anecdotes that appear here may seem unbelievable, but they really happened. And as neither the Brothers Grimm, nor Perrault, nor Andersen, nor so many other storytellers chose to relate these facts, Granny, a wise and brave character if ever there was one, has decided to tell you what has never been told before; Little Red Riding Hood's short-sightedness and colour blindness, Tom Thumb's fondness for playing hide-and-seek, or the fact that the wolf takes part in casting calls so that he will no longer be typecast as the big bad wolf in all the stories. So, let's find out what they never told you before about fairy tale characters...

978-84-698-4713-8 | 16,50 € | HB | 210 mm x 270 mm | 96 pp

Pinch of Salt

Pinch of Salt combines engaging stories and characters with content from diverse areas of the Primary and Secondary Education curricula. Its great many illustrations make reading more enjoyable and help to stimulate the imagination of young readers. At the end of each book, the activity sheets and explanatory study file allow for a thorough exploration of the topics covered in each title.

OVER 650.000 COPIES SOLD OF THE SERIES

Knut and the Mammoth

Alonso, Ana · Illustrations: Maier, Ximena

Learn loads of things about the origin of numbers and calendars, and life in prehistoric times with the adventures of Sebas and Daniela.

Sebas and Daniela, pupils at the Verne School for Young Inventors, travel back into Prehistory thanks to the magical powers of Pat the turtle. There they meet Knut and his pet, a baby mammoth, and they will help the tribe recover an object of great value. Not only will children enjoy reading the story, but they will also learn about the origin of numbers and the calendar, and discover what life was like in prehistoric times.

978-84-698-3630-9 | 9,50 € | PB | 145 mm x 205 mm | 96 pp

The Adventure of March 8th

Alonso, Ana · Illustrations: Serrano Guerrero, Lucía

Learn a lot of things about gender equality, and about suffixes, prefixes, adjectives, and word families.

Our superhero Lucas wants to join his grandmother Ruth and his friend Leonor, who are also superheroes, on a strike on March 8th in favour of women's rights. But that is just the very day that the intergalactic sorcerers have chosen to launch a terrifying attack on the internet. Will Lucas and Leonor succeed in stopping the threat? Not only will children enjoy reading the story, but will also learn about suffixes, prefixes, adjectives, and word families, and be prompted to reflect on gender equality.

978-84-698-4887-6 | 9,95 € | PB | 140 mm x 200 mm | 112 pp

Seas of Plastic

Alonso, Ana · Illustrations: F. Sanz, Luis

Learn about the build-up of plastic waste in the sea and the measures that can be taken to curb this environmental problem.

Elena signs up for a summer workcamp to clear the Canary Islands' beaches of plastic waste, although her decision has been somewhat influenced by the fact that a classmate that she likes will also be taking part. But once on the island, Elena feels as if she doesn't fit in. Then Damián, the son of a local fisherman, appears, and this will change everything. / As well as enjoying the story, students will learn about the build-up of plastic waste in the sea and the measures that can be taken to curb this environmental problem.

978-84-698-6613-9 | 9,95 € | PB | 145 mm x 200 mm | 152 pp

Tales and Legends of Latin America

Díaz, Gloria Cecilia · Illustrations: Meza, Estelí

In this anthology of tales and legends from Latin America, we discover the richness and variety that coexist in this territory of great cultural and historical diversity.

Tales and legends that lead us along the paths of the Latin American ancestral imagination. Some stories will be scary, others will make you laugh, and others will surprise every reader. You will learn why the Llorona cries, why some creatures have their feet the other way round, why the bat is so ugly, and many other curious tidbits. And in this way, we will come to understand why humans have used their imagination to explain the inexplicable since the dawn of time. A compilation that recovers the collective memory of Latin America for us to delve into its secrets and become acquainted with its archetypes.

978-84-698-3645-3 | 16,50 € | HB | 195 mm x 245 mm | 152 pp

A Christmas Carol

Dickens, Charles · Illustrations: Pérez, Óscar T.

One of Charles Dickens' most beloved stories, now in a new illustrated adaptation. Includes a Christmas card to write and send.

As can be gathered from the title of the book, Charles Dickens is a master at capturing an atmosphere imbued with the Christmas spirit. Three ghosts, Christmas Past, Christmas Present and Christmas Yet to Come, lead us into the homes of both the bourgeoisie and the humbler classes, take us on a stroll along the streets of London, and introduce us to some of the people living there. Of all the characters in this moral fable, two have become prototypes: Scrooge, the protagonist, whose name has come to be synonymous with a miserly old grump, and Tiny Tim, the sick, helpless little boy who is the author's favourite, as are all poor children.

978-84-698-6619-1 | 20,95 € | HB | 205 mm x 265 mm | 90 pp

The Sancho Panza Manuscript

Lalana Josa, Fernando · Illustrations: Castejón, Chus

This year's Anaya Award has taken us back to the XVI century. A fascinating testimony from a teenage Sancho Panza who, together with Alonso de Quijano, talks to Cervantes while he is imprisoned.

20TH ANAYA AWARD FOR CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT LITERATURE, 2022

In a place in Aragon, whose name is Zaragoza, the Cuadratura publishing house is going under. Until, one morning like any other, its editor receives a manuscript like no other. To begin with, the manuscript is literal; it is a bundle of yellowed sheets that appear to be centuries old and contain a fascinating testimony: the real story of Alonso and Sancho, the two young men who inspired Don Quixote. Intrigued, Rebeca reads how Alonso and Sancho meet Miguel de Cervantes, who tells them first-hand about his adventures.

978-84-143-3461-4 | 12,95 € | HB | 150 mm x 220 mm | 248 pp

Anaya Award for Children's and Young Adult Literature

The Anaya Award for Children's and YA Literature is given yearly and rewards originality and high literary quality in works, with the aim of disseminating them to encourage reading among young people.

NATIONAL AWARD FOR CHILDREN'S AND YA LITERATURE 2022
CUATROGATOS FOUNDATION AWARD, 2022

OEPLI HONOR LIST 2022

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, FRENCH

CUATROGATOS FOUNDATION AWARD 2018
OEPLI HONOR LIST 2017

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN, GERMAN

RIGHTS SOLD: KOREAN

Sherlock Holmes and I

Muñoz Puelles, Vicente · Illustrations: Olivares, Javier

This new collection of stories recaptures the magic and enchantment of the original tales, taking Holmes back to the London fogs, his natural element, and to a cluttered but cosy room in Baker Street, where his call to action still echoes: "Come, Watson, come! The game is afoot."

The character of Sherlock Holmes is so appealing and inspiring that many readers believe, or would like to believe, that he really existed. He has been honoured with statues, museums, stamps, coins, fan clubs and even detailed biographies. He has also made an appearance in numerous works by other authors, such as Mark Twain, Maurice Leblanc and Isaac Asimov. On occasions, he has been transported in time to a different century, and even to a different planet.

978-84-698-8565-9 | 12,50 € | PB | 145 mm x 215 mm | 224 pp

TO READ AND TO THINK SERIES

The Snow Queen

Andersen, Hans Christian · Illustrations: Pérez, Óscar T.

“Life itself is the most wonderful fairy tale.” Hans Christian Andersen

Gerda and Kay are very close friends who love each other like siblings. They are neighbours and love to play together. One winter's day, as the falling snowflakes form figures on the windowpane, Kay's grandmother tells them the story of the beautiful white Snow Queen. That night, as Kay gazes at the falling snow, a large flake lands on his window and turns into the Snow Queen. From then on, Kay is no longer the same person, and one day he disappears on a great sledge driven by the Queen herself. It is then that Gerda embarks on a search for him, never tiring in her quest, but it will not be so easy to find him.

978-84-698-2503-7 | 16,50 € | HB | 210 mm x 270 mm | 80 pp

RIGHTS SOLD: CHINESE

The Boy with the Arrow

Freire, Espido

OVER 50,000 COPIES SOLD

A historical novel set in Emerita Augusta (Mérida) that takes us back to 1st century Roman Hispania. The second young adult novel by the award-winning writer Espido Freire

OEPLI Honour List 2017

Marco is like any other boy of the present day. He's intelligent, sensitive and has many good qualities, as well as many fears. Having turned twelve, he is now at the age when his life will change irrevocably and leaving behind his care-free childhood, he will take his first steps towards adulthood. His story and his concerns could be those of any other teenager, as could his errors. The only difference is that Marco lives in the 1st century A.D. in Emerita Augusta, present-day Mérida, a city in Roman Hispania where free citizens live side by side with slaves, where women are placed under the tutelage of their families, and where society, though sophisticated, enjoys violent entertainment. Marco, together with his friend Aselo, will make mistakes, learn to ask for help and, in short, do what any other boy of his age does: grow up.

978-84-698-0907-5 | 12,95 € | PB | 145 mm x 205 mm | 240 pp

The Secret of the Galleon

Alcolea, Ana

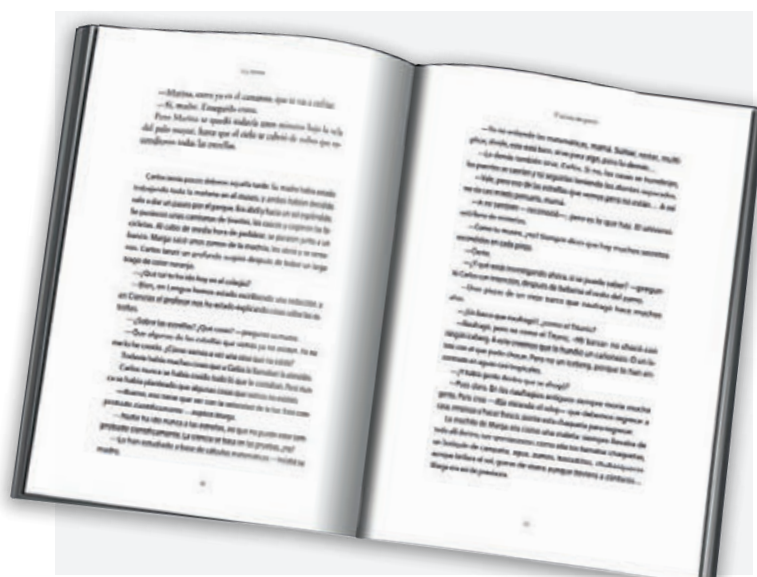

ANA ALCOLEA'S BOOKS HAVE SOLD OVER 500,000 COPIES IN SPANISH

What secrets are hidden away in the wreck of a galleon which sank almost 200 years ago?

Early 19th century: Marina is voyaging with her family from the American colonies to Spain. She is nothing like her sisters: she does not think about getting married or embroidering her trousseau, she only wishes to live on the seas, to become a sailor; an aspiration which is impossible for her to achieve. This dream is no secret to her slave Ramira, a woman that has been robbed of everything she has ever loved, and who hides away the great powers she has inherited from her African ancestors.

The present day: Carlos's mother is studying the remains of a Spanish galleon that was shipwrecked in the Atlantic. But there is something about the objects she is working on that she finds very troubling, which makes her very uneasy. And her disquiet mounts when her ex-husband arrives at the museum to collaborate with the restoration. Meanwhile, Carlos is interested in Elena, a classmate of his who he'd like to get to know better. Little does he know that it will be his parents' research study that will bring them much closer together.

978-84-678-6136-5 | 12,95 € | PB | 140 mm x 210 mm | 208 pp

Tales and Legends of the Greek Gods

Domene, Francisco · Illustrations: Hierro, Max

This book introduces the reader to the major deities of ancient Greek mythology.

From the earliest of times, these gods have been a constant inspiration for poets and artists. The power of their emotions and their many "human" traits still have a powerful hold on our collective imagination.

978-84-667-9319-3 | 10,95 € | PB | 140 mm x 200 mm | 192 pp

Tales and Legends

A collection of tales that have been passed down through time by oral tradition, stories where myth and history merge, that bring together the storytelling forms of diverse periods and cultures. Tales of the past and the present all have a place in these books; tales that help explain the traditions and cultural heritage of the peoples of the world.

The Species Hunters

Blanco Laserna, David · Illustrations: Puño

A fascinating journey back to the Cretaceous period to learn more about the origin of birds and the formation of fossils

Young Astrid could not find the prospect of living with her father on a remote island in Sweden more depressing. And to make matters worse, some aliens take the liberty of abducting them. Their spaceship is a monstrous Noah's Ark where thousands of captive species from all four corners of the universe are crammed together. Once in outer space, they are transported in time on a fascinating journey back to the Cretaceous period, when dinosaurs reigned the earth. On their journey, they will encounter the irresistible Kavat the six-armed thief, and Dangstrum, a terrifying assassin. Together they will endeavour to save the natural history of the Earth whilst fighting to save their own lives in the process.

978-84-678-4038-4 | 10,95 € | PB | 145 mm x 200 mm | 160 pp

Science Code

For inquiring young minds and adventure lovers, an invitation to play with science that extends far beyond the pages of the book. Every book contains an appendix with further information on the topics brought up in the stories, such as scientific ideas, biographies and experiments.

Windows

González Rubio, Paloma

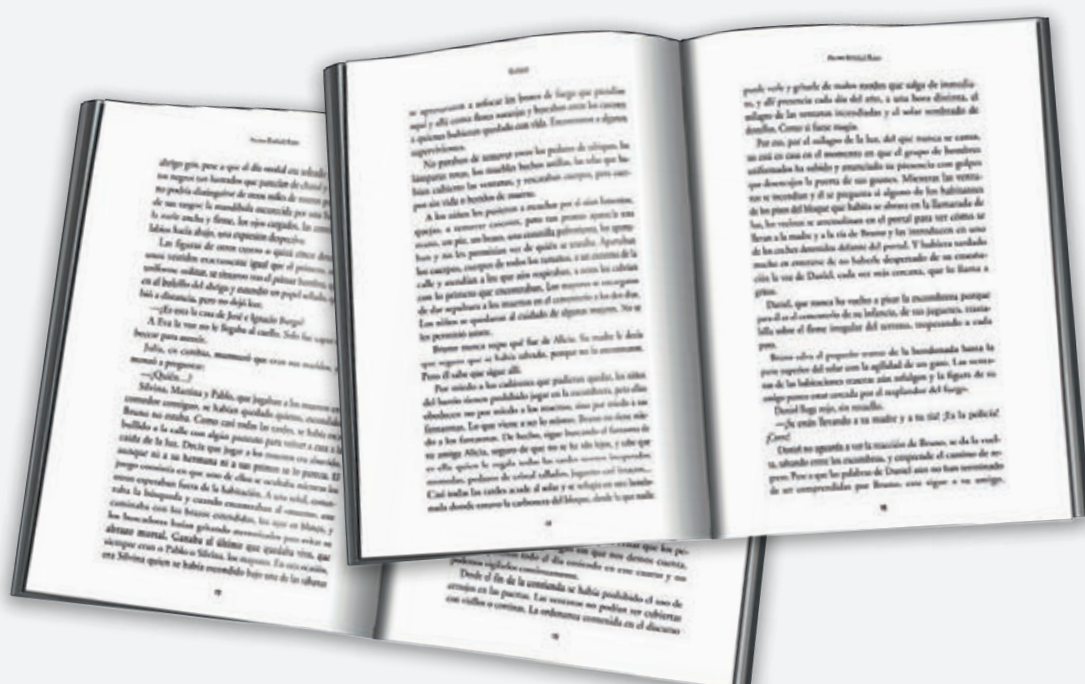

Based on a true story, this novel is a condemnation of the situation by which defenceless children become engaged in armed conflict and the tragedy that turns children into soldiers

FINALIST IN THE XVIII ANAYA AWARD FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULT LITERATURE
XIII TEMPLE OF A THOUSAND DOORS AWARD FOR BEST INDEPENDENT NOVEL
CHOSEN AS ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF 2021 BY THE NEWSPAPER EL PAÍS

After the war, a group of armed men turn up without warning and detain Bruno and Silvina's parents, aunt and uncle. Four children and a baby are left alone and defenceless in their family home, left to fend for themselves in a hostile city where residents watch each other closely from their windows. Bruno and Silvina, accompanied by the ghost of little Alicia, who disappeared in a bomb attack, are forced into a fight for survival. They must take care of the baby and their young cousins, and try to find their parents, despite the cowardice of neighbors, relatives and strangers leading them up dead-end paths.

978-84-698-8609-0 | 12,95 € | PB | 145 mm x 210 mm | 144 pp

ANAYA

www.anayainfantilyjuvenil.com

FOREIGN RIGHTS

Gema Álvarez

galvarez@anaya.es

9437077

